Payments:

A $750 non-refundable deposit per art class Participant is due at time of registration to reserve a spot. Participants may cancel a reservation for a full refund of the deposit within 24 hours of payment. After 24 hours, the deposit is non-refundable.

Final payment of the balance of the trip cost is due no later than October 31, 2025.

No deposit is required for non-painting Participants. Full payment is due by October 31, 2025 to ensure WAC is able to make adequate restaurant and museum reservations.

Travel Insurance:

WAC does not offer travel insurance and will not be responsible to Participant for any costs except as specifically provided in this Agreement. Personal travel insurance is, therefore, strongly suggested to cover Participant's costs such as airline tickets, loss of luggage, trip delays, medical evacuation, medical expenses, reimbursement for accommodations and workshop tuition.

Workshop Cancellation Policy:

If WAC elects to cancel the workshop for any reason, including insufficient attendance, the entire amount paid to WAC will be refunded within 14 days after the workshop's cancellation. In the unlikely event this should occur, WAC has no other obligations to Participant for canceled workshops including, but not limited to, costs or fees related to the issuance and/or cancellation of airline tickets or other travel reservations not made by WAC. WAC has no responsibility to provide refunds if the workshop is canceled as the result of risk or threat of war, riot, civil strife, strike, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural disaster, fire, travel bans, pandemic restrictions or other similar events beyond WAC's control.

In the unlikely event that the designated art instructor is unable to attend the workshop, WAC may, at its sole discretion, substitute a qualified instructor to teach the course, or cancel the trip. If WAC cancels the trip, WAC will refund amounts paid by Participants to WAC as provided above. In the event an instructor becomes ill or injured during the trip and is completely incapacitated from teaching, WAC will reimburse painting Participant $100 per day for each day the instructor is unable to teach.

Refunds After Cancellation by Participant:

Cancellation by the Participant for any reason more than 120 days prior to the date the workshop starts will result in a full refund of amounts paid to WAC minus the non-refundable $750 deposit.

Cancellation by the Participant for any reason (including, but not limited to, injury, illness or death) 120 days or less prior to the date the workshop starts will result in a 50% refund of funds paid, not including the non-refundable deposit, but only if WAC is able to refill the vacancy. Participant should understand that WAC invests significant labor, incurs significant costs and must pre-pay many of the trip costs for venues and services months before the trip begins. Further, it is costly in labor and expense to find a replacement participant able to join a trip of this nature on short notice, assuming that is even possible. WAC, therefore, highly encourages Participants to obtain travel insurance.

COVID-19 and other disease related issues:

The risk of contracting Covid or other diseases is solely that of the Participant and standard cancellation terms will apply. Disease response is evolving over time. At present, WAC does not mandate any specific precautions but strongly recommends that all Participants are fully vaccinated and boosted. Notwithstanding the above, governmental entities, airlines, hotels, restaurants and other vendors may impose their own disease restrictions and requirements and those restrictions may change with little or no notice over time. WAC will make best efforts to notify Participants of any restrictions or requirements but it is the responsibility of the Participants to be aware of, and to comply with, the restrictions and requirements of governmental and private entities including, but not limited to, the requirements imposed by airlines.

Liability

Participant understands that foreign travel may present risks, such as, but not limited to, food borne illness, health problems, personal injury, political unrest, natural disaster, and/or other unforeseen circumstances that could arise. Participant acknowledges and agrees that WAC and its owner are only responsible for providing the classes, dinners and excursions outlined above. Participant further agrees to waive any and all claims against WAC, its owners and employees, for personal injury or damages that may occur arising from any cause, including claims for personal injury or damages arising out the negligence, excepting gross negligence, of WAC, its owners or employees, related to the above described trip. Neither WAC nor its owner is responsible for any changes, delays, cancellations or other unforeseeable occurrences in connection to these travel arrangements, except as specified above.

Dispute Resolution:

All disputes between the Participant and WAC arising out of or in any way connected to this Agreement will be resolved through confidential binding arbitration held in King County, Washington in accordance with the Arbitration Rules and Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (“JAMS”). The state or federal courts of the State of Washington and the United States in King County have exclusive jurisdiction over any appeals and the enforcement of an arbitration award. Any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement must be filed with JAMS within one year after such claim arose or the claim is permanently barred.

Governing Law:

The terms of this Agreement and any dispute arising out of or in any way connected with this Travel Agreement will be construed and governed pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington or, if applicable, federal law.

Environmental Commitment:

WAC recognizes that air travel contributes to the emission of climate changing carbon into the atmosphere and has committed to doing its share to offset those costs to the environment. Every year WAC makes a substantial donation to the Rainforest Alliance, or other similar organization committed to climate conservation.
